“We, a couple from busy Sydney, just wanted to relax for a week. And what a week! Best resort we could have gone to. We spent the first couple of days just laying down by the zen pool. After that we started being involved a bit in activities like petanque, paddle board, tennis, archery... Food was amazing everyday. Shows were entertaining. Staff was lovely. This resort is the perfect place if you are looking for the right balance between fun, relaxation, activities and quality. We don't have children, but from the look of it, parents and children looked like they were having a great time too!”

Holidays with kids Readers Choice for Indonesia

“An all-inclusive sanctuary located on the shores of Nusa Dua between rice paddies and temples, Club Med Bali Resort is a 393-room family paradise. Surf, golf and snorkel away your days and spend warm nights dining on the fine cuisine offered at one of the five bars and restaurants. Pamper yourself with a spa treatment or two at the Spa by MANDARA, but try not to use up all your time deciding between all the treatments, no matter how tantalising they are. Age-appropriate kids' clubs are available for little ones from four months to 17 years old, and there's no shortage of fantastic activities including Little Circus, windsurfing, flying trapeze lessons and more.”

"There are numerous Bali resorts, but Club Med Bali has done a brilliant job at creating a space where you literally have everything you need at the resort and never need to leave. So if you're looking for a Bali all inclusive get away, that focuses on a Bali family holiday connecting you and your loved ones together then I strongly suggest you head to Club Med Bali" .

"This magnificent all-inclusive and family-friendly resort is power-packed with superb dining options and on-site activities. Trapeze School, anyone? It was a great base from which I explored Bali from, before returning to its pampering array of amenities. The adults-only Zen pool was my kind of perfect. "
